

May 2018

To whom it may concern,

My name is Krissa Donahue and I am thrilled to write this letter of recommendation for Samreen Junaid. I met Samreen in January 2016 when she was the volunteer coordination of C.W. Perry School's parent council (4 years) and a guest speaker within Rocky View Schools (5 years and ongoing). Samreen is also the founder of her company, Traditional Glimpse, a henna design business.

Samreen finds ways to support students. Samreen partnered with C.W. Perry's Dance Team to work with me to host an outdoor community fundraiser for two years by persuading local food truck companies, such as Perogy Boyz and Wilk's Booth, to participate in the fundraiser. Her support and connection to community businesses were an essential component of the fundraiser. Furthermore, Samreen gave an enriching presentation to the Grade 3 classes at Windsong Heights this year about the culture of India along with an opportunity to get a henna design on their arm.

In conclusion, Samreen is a selfless and dedicated individual who contributes to her local community. Samreen is also the recipient of 2016's Champion of Art Mayor Night Award, 2013's Airdrie's Amazing Women Determination Award and a nominee of 2015's City of Airdrie Volunteer Award. Her undeniable passion to give back to the community inspires others, like myself, to strive to do more for others. Samreen would be a valuable candidate for any position she set out for.

Sincerely,
